

Mrs. Andrew Fortney died last Wednesday morning of pneumonia after only a very brief illness. She contracted a severe cold which rapidly developed into pneumonia with the result that death claimed her as a victim after only a brief period of suffering. Interment was made in the cemetery near the Fortney farm.