

Ludvig P. Larson

Ludvig Larson, son of Richard Larson, died at Camp Grant, Ill., on Thursday, October 19th, after a brief illness from pneumonia. The remains arrived home Monday, and Tuesday funeral services were held in the Lutheran church in this village, after which interment was made in Eidfjord cemetery.

Deceased has for some years past conducted a store at Revere under the firm name of Larson & Elliott, and had planned to continue his business there after his military duties were over, the store being in the care of his brother during his absence. He had been in camp only a short while before he was stricken with the fatal disease, and his life brought to an untimely end.

His death is particularly sad in that he leaves a bride of only a few months to mourn his death, as well as many other near relatives, and a host of friends. No mere words suffice to cheer these bereaved relatives in their great sorrow.
