

Mrs. O. B. Hoff and Mrs. O. F. Hoff, of Sutton, visited at the home of Miss Louise Kaas last week. They had been at Cooperstown to attend the funeral of their cousin, Elmer Melby. Elmer had died at Trinity hospital, Jamestown, Tuesday, March 4, from complications of the flu and pneumonia, which he had in October. Deceased was 23 years old and had been employed as railroad chemist at Omaha, until he became too weak to do his work. Then he came to Jamestown to be with his sister, Mrs. H. Drake. Funeral services were held in Cooperstown Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Lutheran church, Rev. Sweger officiating.
