

Mrs. Agnes Rooth

Mrs. Agnes Rooth was born in Wayne county, Neb., in 1887, and fell a victim of the Spanish influenza and passed to the great beyond to meet her Heavenly Father, Nov. 4, at the age of 31 years.

In 1914 she married Charles A. Rooth who passed to his reward March 3, 1916, while residing in El Campo, Texas. Mrs. Rooth has been a member of the Swedish Lutheran church for a number of years and her Christian work met with commendation in this community.

Mrs. Rooth leaves to mourn her departure a mother, a brother, four sisters and a host of friends.

The funeral services were conducted from the home of Christ Jensen by Rev. J. C. Wilson of this place, and the remains were sent from here over the Great Northern to El Campo, Texas, to her old home for interment.

Although Mrs. Rooth had been in our midst only a few months, she made many friends and commanded the highest respect of all. Her friends and loved ones have the deep sympathy of all who knew her.
