

Albert Shue died at Jamestown Nov. 26, and the remains were interred Saturday in St. Olaf cemetery at Walum beside the remains of his wife, Isabel Gunderson, Rev. P. A. Thoreson officiating. Deceased was born in Wisconsin sixty-four years ago, and was one of the pioneers of this county. A daughter, Mrs. Nettie Schwieizer has been living on the old Shue homestead near Coopers-town, but are now residing in Minneapolis.