

Lars Harvey and Hilda Kalvik were married at Moorhead last Thursday. They returned Friday and on Saturday a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Kalvik. About sixty guests were present and partook of the sumptuous repast which was served at high noon. Mrs. Harvey wore her wedding gown of lace over white satin and the long veil. Mr. Harvey wore the conventional black. Miss Lydia Harvey, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Melvin Helmer was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey are both young people of this community and well known. We all join in wishing them much joy and happiness through their wedded life.
