

Houghton-Hazard

Sentinel-Courier: At high noon on Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1918, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Houghton, a very pretty wedding was solemnized, when their daughter, Cora Burnice, became the bride of James Hazard. Rev. Bennett, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present.

The decorations consisted of baskets of yellow-pom-poms and smilax wreaths, with bows of tulle in pale yellow shades.

Following the ceremony a delightful three course wedding dinner was served, after which the happy couple departed on the 4:45 train for an extended trip through Montana.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Houghton, and has grown to womanhood in this community, where she has found a place in the hearts of a large circle of friends.

The groom, one of Griggs county's prosperous farmers, is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hazard, and is a young man of most exemplary character.

Upon returning from their wedding trip, the young couple will make their home on the Hazard farm west of town.
