

The thirtieth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Sigurd Olsen, was celebrated in Union church last Thursday. A splendid program had been arranged for the occasion and a large number of the members of Rev. Olsen's congregations were present. The program was opened by prayer by G. Sola, followed by a song by Rev. Olsen's granddaughter, a song by the choir, a sermon by Rev. T. A. Hagen of Twin Valley, Minn., a close friend of the Olsen family, an address by Rev. Sweger in English, a song by Miss Rachel Olsen, and an address by Rev. P. A. Thoreson on Christian Wages for Faithful Work. Valuable gifts in silver were presented Rev. Olsen and family by his congregations, after which Rev. Olsen with much feeling thanked all who partook in this demonstration of their affection for him. The festivities concluded with a bountiful lunch served in the basement of the church.
