
Carrington Record: T. E. Aarestad, who now lives on the old Tucker ranch in Haven township, was a pleasant caller at the Record office Saturday. Mr. Aarestad bought the Tucker ranch of 800 acres last spring, coming to Foster county from Griggs county, living practically all his life near Cooperstown. Since buying the Tucker land he has also purchased 320 acres which now gives him a fine ranch of over 1100 acres. He is going into stock pretty heavily, and already has a big herd of cattle and over a hundred head of sheep. He believes in mixed farming, and while he will be quite an extensive grain grower, he is not going to depend on grain alone, but intends to put in a great deal of his time on stock. Mr. Aarestad is a young hustler, and is a splendid addition to the citizenry of our county.
