

Ed Axberg, the Enderlin aviator who was injured at Sutton when his plane fell there three weeks ago and his passenger killed, has not given up flying but is back in the game. He has been in the east and bought a new airplane, and is scheduled to appear at the race meet at Valley City Sept. 18th.