

Bartley News

The new consolidated school of Bartley has now been in session for the past month. Everyone seems well pleased with the work the children have accomplished. We must also congratulate Bartley with the transportation of the children as the worry of being lost in the storms is now a thing of the past.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peterson visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Sletten Saturday.

E. C. Evenson and Albert Sletten intend to take a trip to the western part of the state to look at land this week.

Mrs. August Palm entertained the Eldfjord Ladies Aid on Friday, Feb. 8th.

Mandley Evenson spent a couple of days taking care of A. Sletten's chores while he was in Hannaford on a business trip.

Mrs. C. L. Peterson has been visiting a few days on the farm.

Christ Jenson is wearing a broad smile nowadays. I wonder why?

Knut Stee is engaged in the trapping business this winter.

Mrs. E. C. Evenson has been sick for the past two weeks but is now recovering.

Mrs. Andrew Sonju is on the sick-list this winter but we hope she will soon recover.

E. C. Evenson has started sheep ranching.

Ole H. Larson from Tompkins, Sask., Canada, spent Christmas in Wisconsin with relatives and stopped off a few days here on his way