

Alfred Brunsvold, who has been working for Asher Anderson for the past two years, has accepted a position with an implement and automobile firm in Grand Forks, and Mr. and Mrs. Brunsvold will leave this week for their new home. Their many friends here will wish them success in their new location.