

While driving his father's new Buick car Lawrence Campbell accompanied by the barber had a narrow escape from being badly hurt when the car turned over about half a mile east of Walum Thursday. Luckily they escaped with only minor injuries. It seems the boy lost control of the car while traveling at a high rate of speed and before he could shut it down they turned over. The car was slightly damaged.

---

---