Ladies who wish to sew for the Red Cross can meet at Karnak either Tuesday or Thursday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock the one most convenient. All work must be in by the 20th of each month.—Mrs. Wickham, Chairman, Women's Work.

We hope every lady in this vicinity will put forth an effort to be present with willing hands at each meeting. I heard one lady say she put off a two weeks' washing, another ruined a baking of bread, one came and worked with fingers crippled with rheumatism while another stopped a washing to get there. Now unless you have a more important and better excuse than these ladies had, try to help with this Red Cross sewing.

A Little Bit of Hell

Have you ever heard the tale about the land that lies beyond the Rhine.

And who it was discovered that home of Huns and swine? One day old Satan felt distressed, the sparks flew from his eyes,

And he said: "I'll find another home somewhere beneath the skies."

CHORUS

So old Satan found a spot on earth, all steeped in blood and crime, And he hollers out with all his might "This bit of earth is mine!"

'Tis the land of Huns and Kultur, is this little bit of hell Where they butcher babes and mothers, as they murdered Nurse Cavell They sent their imps in submarines to murder on the sea,

And the rotten Kaiser never thought what would the harvest be; So the Devil sent for all his mob and shouted out with glee:

"I am going to move my Demons here," and he called it Germany!
