

County Rural School Notes

We now have forty-seven Red Cross School Auxiliaries in the county. Several schools have started work. Some have started work on the knitted articles others on the snipping and hand sewing.

Broadview School District No. 1.

School No. 4. A Red Cross School Auxiliary has been organized and Miss Minnie Johnson has sent in the fee of $2.00 to the Cooperstown School Chapter.

Greenfield District No. 2.

School No. 1. Miss Mabel Nolen reports the organization of their Junior Red Cross Auxiliary and that they will work with the Hannaford School Chapter.

Helena District No. 3

School No. 3. Mabelle Mogaard, Chester Wild, Burton and Leida Harrington began work in the first grade last Monday. Twenty-one pupils from our school had perfect attendance the past week. Thrift Stamp report for the past two weeks is as follows: Vera Olson, Inez Richardson, Peter Mogaard, and Glen Richardson, 1; Myrtle and Thomas Koukal, 4; Ruth Richardson, 2; John Halvig has one book of Thrift Stamps. Fern Harrington resumed her school duties again after an enjoyable vacation with mumps. Peter, Myrtle and Selma Mogaard began work last week in the sixth grade. A brief outline of the work to be taken up by the children in their Red Cross work was given Friday and they seem very much interested in their work.

School No. 4. Edwin Feske was absent from school one day when he went to Cooperstown to receive medical aid from Dr. Almklov.

Dover School District No. 4.

School No. 2. School Red Cross Auxiliary was organized last week. There are thirteen members.

School No. 3. The following pupils had one hundred per cent in Spelling the past week: Walter Ross, Elizabeth Richardson, Mabel Chilson, Joseph Yunck, Raymond Yunck, Clifford Busch, Norman Michaelson, Hazel Richardson, Emil Kurse and Hazel Wellman. The Eighth grade is studying "The Man Without a Country."

Ball Hill District No. 17.

School No. 1. Lester Bruns is a new scholar in our school. Douglas Lee visited school Thursday. We have received our stove and have begun to serve hot noon lunches.

School No. 4. Freda Colberg entered school on Monday making our enrollment 23. Esther Skjelset purchased a War Savings Stamp this week, and Viola Greenland bought seven Thrift Stamps. Several pupils have been absent this week because of Pink Eye. Miss Hannah Stai visited school on Wednesday.