Mr. Tom Hopland and family have left for Blair, Wis., where they will make their home for the winter.

JOHNSON-SAD

Last Saturday a quiet wedding occurred at the Hannaford Lutheran parsonage. Hans Johnson and Esther Sad, both well-known young people of this community, were united in holy matrimony. The people of Dover Township extend hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Hans Johnson.

John Miklethun left for Fargo last Monday, returning home on Tuesday accompanied by his daughter Huldah.

Don't forget the Ladies Aid Sale and Dinner at the Dover School, Saturday, November 15th.

Rev. P. A. Thoreson had confirmation services in the Eidfjord church in the township of Dover, on Sunday, Nov. 9th. In spite of the dreary weather the church was filled with a large congregation. The class numbered fifteen, namely:

- Lillian Viola Evenson
- Agnes Krokum
- Inga Mathilde Saby
- Inga Mathilde Heyerdahl
- Mildred Cathrine Peterson
- Gudrun Mortenson
- Alma Nicoline Jacobson
- Tilla Hilda Michaelson
- Alvin Sylvester Miklethun
- John Olevy Jacobson
- Ammes Burnett Michaelson
- Omer Archie Burnett Michaelson
- Leonard Theodor Pederson
- Bertin Sylvester Pederson
- Melvin Martinus Pederson

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hauge have moved into the building which was fixed up for them on the Dover School Grounds. Mr. Hauge will be janitor and one of the bus drivers for the school.
