

Dover Items

Miss Anna B. Sad left for Valley City on Sunday evening.

Mr. Andrew Kleven and Mr. Adolph Vig are visiting friends in this community.

Dover school was not in session during the past week on account of the severe storm and the bad roads.

Last week Mr. John L. Micklethun spent a few days at Cooperstown on business.

Clara Anderson returned to Valley City on Friday to resume her school duties there, after having spent a week at home.

Mr. Carl Ekstrand was a Cooperstown visitor one day last week.

Miss Esther Pederson, Primary teacher at Dover School, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. John Micklethun.

Mr. and Mrs. Willam Hauge and Mrs. Hauge's mother, Mrs. Harrington, spent Sunday with relatives near Sutton.

Mrs. Isaac Ellefson and grandchildren, Amos and Mabel Michaelson, all of Wimbledon, visited for a few days at the farm home of Mrs. Ellefson's daughter, Mrs. Clarence Wild.

Last Thursday the problem of road blockage was solved when some of the farmers started out together, with eight teams, and succeeded in breaking a road to Walum. The bus drivers of Dover were also busy breaking roads the last part of the week so as to be able to make their routes on Monday.
