

Dover Items

Ole Sad is having a new barn built.

Mr. Carl Nelson and family have moved from the Skjelset farm to Willie Micklethun's place.

A new cement walk is being laid from the new school building to the driveway.

Friday, Oct. 24th, the Eidfjord Ladies Aid will be entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Thoreson.

Mrs. John Hanson with her daughter and son left last Friday for their home at Fingal. Mr. Hanson will remain here for some time as he is making some improvements at the Dover School.

Two of the old schoolhouses have been moved to the new school grounds. One of these buildings is being remodeled for a janitorage and the other for a hall in which school meetings will be held.

The pupils of Dover School have gathered enough subscriptions for "The Farmers Wife" magazine to obtain at last three patriotic pictures for the school.

Last Sunday the Eidfjord Congregation held their first meeting in their new church. The Congregation and Mr. Hanson, the contractor, are to be congratulated with the beautiful building. After the services last Sunday a committee of six: Mr. and Mrs. Christ Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Nels Myrhaug was appointed to collect clothing for the suffering in Poland. An offering was taken at the church to be used in buying food for the starving people of Poland.