

L. B. Moore is in receipt of word from Peter Falstad that he has been made Corporal and that he together with twenty-six other boys from Camp Dodge recently went to Kenosha, Wis., where they will take a six weeks' course in the construction of Nash Motor trucks which are used in the camp.