

Sutton Reporter: Oscar Frydenberg wrote to friends this week, saying that he has been assigned a job as motor tester in the aviation department. This is a very important work, as the aeroplane engines must be in perfect order when a flight is begun. He is now at San Antonio, Texas, but thinks he will be in France by February 1.