

Edgar Gustafson, who has just been honorably discharged from the Marine Corps, arrived home last Thursday for a visit with his parents. He will not resume his work with the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. at New York, but has taken a somewhat similar position with a firm in Chicago.