

H. H. Hagen returned home from Camp Grant, Ill., Sunday, where he has been in the officers' training school. Happy states that many of the boys are leaving for home every day and that already many of the soldiers who were on their way to France have returned to the camps and are waiting to be demobilized.