

Several new cases of influenza has developed in the county, and it is reported that the schools at Coopers-town may be forced to close again. Also in the country around town there are several cases, among those most seriously affected being the family of Nels Olsen, who are all reported to be down with the disease.

D. C. Henderson who has