

SCHOOL NOTES

6

Helen Anderson, Editor

Lester Burns entered school the past week in the first grade, thus making a total of twenty-one regular attendants in that grade.

The Primary room has been making Christmas presents during the drawing period.

Those who have had perfect attendance for the first three months are: Theodore Curtis, Harriet Hagen, Clifford Ouren, Arvid Palm, Raymond Richardson. Those who got a hundred in monthly tests for Spelling: Marie Hareland and Ole Troseth.

Those who got a hundred in Language Marie Hareland, Bernard Judge and Robert Angus.

For Arithmetic Harold Thoreson and Leonard Hagen.

Only three pupils absent in the Intermediate room the past week.

The Grammar room boasts of a Red Cross Service Flag with 12 crosses on it. The following are earnest and on the job, will have a chance to buy a "partnership in the business" sooner than he thinks if he will only keep on working hard and BANKING his earnings.

Put YOUR money in OUR bank

We pay FIVE per cent interest

Farmers State Bank

William Angus, Cashier.

O. M. Westley, Asst Cashier

members: Harry Westley, Lydia Thoreson, Robert Jones, Josephine Wilson, Marjorie Sinclair, Dorothy Angus, Russel Richardson, Kenneth Rosdal, Myrtle Aarestad, Rachel Knauss, Myrtle Westley, Miss Lykken, Lillian Larson, Thelma Peterson, Russel Richardson, Kenneth Rosdal, Marjorie Sinclair, Myrtle Westley, Josephine Wilson, Agnes Frydenberg.

Mrs. Berg and Mrs. Thoreson visited school the past week.

The High School girls had Glee Club practice on Tuesday night.

The High School have been taking monthly examinations the last two days of the past week.

A business meeting of the Literary Society was called to have the Program postponed until the first Thursday night in the first week after Christmas vacation.

The Grammar room had a Christmas tree on Friday morning. Having earned a half holiday for good attendance there was no school in the afternoon. The following were neither absent nor tardy the past month: Dorothy Angus, Myrtle Aarestad, Minnie Brekke, Carl Brudwick, Nora Cederson, Kenneth Curtis, Thelma Dunnun, Carl Haugen, Eugene Judge, Robert Jones, Rachel