

Hannaford School Notes

Alvina Nelson, Editor

The following pupils of the intermediate room have not been absent for the month, Hans Anundson, Clair Hagen, Bernard Judge, Frederick Knauss, Arthur Sinclair, Lowell Staffney, Ole Troseth, Othella Westley, Agnes Westley, Robert Angus, Orlo Johnson, Raymond Jones, Helen Richardson, Philip Schmidt, Rachel Curtis, Lila Fogderud and Harold Thoreson.

The attendance in the intermediate room has been very poor this week on account of so many of the children having bad colds.

The following in the grammar room have had a perfect attendance for four months, Carl Brudwick, Kenneth Curtis, Robert Jones, Thelma Peterson, Russell Richardson, Marjorie Sinclair, Myrtle Westley and Josephine Wilson.

The following in the Grammar room have not been absent for the past month, Dorothy Angus, Carl Brudwick, Kenneth Curtis, Thelma Dunnum, Carl Haugen, Mary Judge, Robert Jones, Marjorie Sinclair, Harry Westley, Myrtle Westley, Josephine Wilson, Rachel Knauss, Lillian Larson, Thelma Peterson and Russel Richardson.

The High School room had examinations on Thursday and Friday.

A very good program was rendered by the Literary Society Thursday evening. A large crowd was present to take in the big mock trial, which was carried out very successfully. The hearts of the audience were touched by the touching appeal of the defendant's attorney, while the plaintiff's attorney did his best in trying to prove the accused guilty. Custer has been wearing a very smiling face since, as he was found not guilty by the members of the jury.
