

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Ione Johnson, Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Ward's having a hard time to get the teachers to school at 8:30 in the morning.

A number of boys who played "hookey" Friday afternoon enjoyed a call at the office Monday morning.

The Normal Training class has been enjoying instructions in primary work the past week.

Mr. Ward is giving the Seniors a big dose of Physics every morning.

LOST—By a member of the French class, the ability to read French.

History Teacher—"Will some one explain the meaning of "feudal tenure."

Brilliant Freshman—"Feudal tenure is a neighborhood quarrel."

Teacher—"Eight months of winter and four months of cold weather"

Pupil—"When is the cold weather coming?"

Theorem: To prove that a sheet of writing paper is a lazy dog.

Given: One sheet of ruled paper.

To prove: A sheet of ruled paper is a lazy dog.

Proof: A sheet of ruled paper is an inclined plane.

An incl-ined plane is a slope up.

A slo-pup is a lazy dog.

English Teacher: "Take notes on the Age of Elizabeth."

Pupil: "How old is she?"

WANTED—By Lydia Thoresan 'a cold.'

Notice to Geometry Girls: Please keep your bows tied.

The dictionary is in constant use. What is the attraction?

It was a mild day in winter.

The rain was snowing fast.

A barefoot boy with shoes on.

Stood sitting on the grass.—Contributed by a new Sophomore poet.

The English II class has just finished Shakespeare's "As You Like It," and have begun to study "Julius Caesar."

WANTED—Plenty of work. Apply to R. R.

The base ball team is progressing. We hope to witness a game in the near future.