

The Hannaford Schools re-opened yesterday, November 11th, after being closed since October 8th, due to the influenza epidemic. All the teachers are back at work except Miss Walker who is confined to her home by sickness. The ban on all other public meetings has been lifted in Griggs county and the churches, schools and theatres have re-opened everywhere.