

The Karnak News

Mr. H. Helland was in Hannaford Friday.

Remember the Ladies Aid Dinner and Sale at the church basement on Dec. 11th. Dinner from 11:30 until 1:00. Sale, grab bag, candy counter, etc. Come and take part.

If weather permits Mr. and Mrs. Doty will be with us next Sunday. Morning and evening services at the usual hour.

Mr. E. H. Peterson has purchased a new piano.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Magnussen have moved into their new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Mosher and Mrs. Elihu Mosher left last week for western points where they will spend the winter.

The Freer school will be closed this week while a new chimney is being built.

Mrs. O. C. Olson was in Hannaford between trains Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vance returned from Vance, N. D., Friday where they attended the funeral of the Mr. Vance's father.

Mrs. Hogness and daughter Helen went to Fargo Friday evening. From there they will go to Valley City to have some dress making done.

Mrs. Kravig, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Helland and Mrs. Griesinger did shopping between trains Saturday.

A good sleigh load from Karnak have been enjoying the meetings in the Curtis schoolhouse every evening the past week. These meetings are conducted by a Mr. Hughes and Walter Jardine, who have given up their chance and opportunities in life to preach the Gospel to those with whom they come in contact. The meetings have been thoroughly enjoyed by all. It is uncertain yet as to how long they will continue.