

The Karnak News

(Received too late for last week.)

Mrs. Ole Kravig is expected home from Northwood this week.

Karnak folks who have been sick are gaining nicely.

There will be no school in the Freer school this week as Miss Dodd has the flu.

Mrs. Joe Griesinger arrived home from her visit in South Dakota Thursday morning.

Mr. Hughes held a meeting in the depot Sunday evening.

J. J. Hogness, C. O. Johnson and Henning Anderson boarded the flyer for Hannaford Monday.

Five carloads of coal on the track at Karnak last week.

Walter Richardson was in Karnak Monday making arrangements for loading several carloads of hay for Montana points.

John Amann has received word from his brother Gebhart, who recently went to Washington, D. C., to obtain a passport for Germany to visit his aged father, but it is very doubtful of his receiving it.

Ole Kravig went to Northwood Monday evening to accompany his wife home, who has been there for some time.

If you're thrifty at 20, you'll be nifty at 50.

Save and grow cheery; waste and grow weary.
