

The Karnak News

Mrs. Eva Curtis was taken to the hospital at Valley City for an operation Saturday evening. Henry Curtis, Miss Hazel Curtis and Ed Labury accompanied her. Later we hear that Mrs. Curtis is getting along fine.

We are sorry to hear that Julius Peterson is quite sick with appendicitis at his home in Cooperstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houghton have moved into the M. Magnussen property and will reside in Karnak in the future.

Andrew Thompson returned from Minneapolis Wednesday where he had been visiting his daughter.

E. L. Raising and family and Mrs. Bracken, Mrs. Trapp's mother, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp this week. They will return to their home in Sonora, N. D., in a few days.

Selmer Larson and Joe Hiller went to Cooperstown Wednesday. Joe has had a severe spell of the flu and we are glad to see him up and around again.

Ole Kravig left for Finley Wednesday where he will look for a location for his family. Mr. Kravig has accepted the position as manager for the St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator Co. at that point. The entire community regrets to lose them but wish them success in their new location.

The Ladies Aid met Thursday with Mrs. S. E. Wickham. Everybody enjoyed the meeting and Mrs. Wickham served dinner to more than fifty persons.

The next important event will be a hard time party in Karnak Hall the date of which will be announced later.

Mrs. Julia Doman went to Cooperstown Friday to see her son who is sick at that place.

Nick Kaastad returned from the Twin Cities Thursday where he had been for several days.

Selmer Larson arrived from Cooperstown Thursday to spend a few days at the farm.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Eva Curtis is not so well as she was the last report.