

The Karnak News

There will be a Hard Time Social and Basket Supper at Karnak Hall, March 28th to raise funds for the Ladies Aid. Ladies will please bring lunch for two.

Fred Peterson shipped three valuable roosters to Mora, Minn., Monday.

Miss Wald of Valley City is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson this week.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kerber east of town Saturday night. Quite a crowd from Karnak went and a good time was enjoyed by all.

E. L. Raising and family and Mrs. Bracken, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp, the past week, left for their home in Sonora, N. D., Saturday evening.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Bennie Haugen, who is at St. John's hospital, Fargo, for treatment, is greatly improved.

Ole Rood transacted business in Cooperstown Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Ladbury and little son are visiting Mrs. Ladbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas at Luverne.

Julius Haugen went to Hannaford Tuesday morning.

L. O. Harris transacted business in Hannaford Wednesday.

Henry Curtis was in Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Peterson is suffering from a slight attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. O. C. Olson went to Fargo Wednesday evening to have some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daily left for Fargo Friday evening for a few days' visit.

Mark Curtis transacted business in Hannaford Friday.

J. J. Hogness is on the sick-list this week.