

The Karnak News

Melvin Vance, who is back from France, is visiting his brother Ralph Vance north of town.

Mrs. P. V. Olson of Fargo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wickham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thomas, who have been visiting here a few days returned to Luverne Monday evening.

Ole Rood transacted business in Hannaford Monday.

Mrs. Ole Kravig was shopping in Hannaford Tuesday.

Mrs. W. F. Thompson went to Hannaford Tuesday enroute to Cooperstown.

Albert Larson who has been out to his farm several days, returned to his home in Cooperstown Wednesday morning.

Joe Hiller who has been quite sick with the flu at the Albert Larson farm, is slowly improving.

Ben Stromme left for Fargo Wednesday evening where he will see his daughter who is at St. Lukes hospital.

Joe Griesinger transacted business in Luverne Wednesday.

E. L. Woodward was in Hannaford between trains Thursday.

Edgar Curtis is suffering from a badly sprained wrist caused by falling from a hay rack.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daily returned Friday morning from Minnesota where they have been visiting for several weeks.

The masquerade dance given in Karnak Hall Friday night was as usual a big hit. Many extraordinary costumes appeared and a good time was enjoyed by all. Watch for the next announcement.

John Fleber was a passenger for Hannaford Tuesday morning.

Fred Peterson returned Tuesday from Minneapolis where he has been attending the bedside of his brother who is very sick.

Howard Curtis transacted business in Hannaford Tuesday.

Mrs. Julia Dorman returned from Detroit, Minn., where she has been attending the bedside of her son who has been quite sick at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie H. Haugen left for Fargo Monday evening where Mrs. Haugen will receive medical attention.

Julius Haugen transacted business in Hannaford Thursday.

Miss Ellen Forsborg visited in Hannaford Friday.