

* * * * *

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

* * * * *

Rev. and Mrs. Doty accompanied by Rev. Koonig of Jamestown held services here Monday evening. From here they went to Grand Forks to attend a conference.

C. C. Kallander left Friday evening for Northwood where he will meet his wife and son Vernon, who have been there for medical attention.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haagen on Saturday, Feb. 31st a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas arrived here from Montana Thursday.

L. O. Harris had his sale on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will move to Hannaford where they will make their future home.

Those who did shopping in Hannaford between trains Saturday were Maxwell, Ed and Ernest Ladbury, Edgar Curtis, Fred Mosher, Mrs. Ole Kravig and Ellen Forsberg.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kerber, Jr., Saturday, March 6, a son.

Hilmer Carlson spent Sunday at the Henry Curtis home.

Mrs. Jacob Siegle returned from Valley City Monday. She expects to bring Mr. Siegle back to the farm soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peterson came down from Cooperstown Saturday, returning Monday.

Florence Peterson is working for her uncle near Dazey.

We have a carload of White Select Oats suited for seed. Better get your order in early. Karnak Farmers Elevator Co.