

The Karnak News

Miss Ellen Forsberg is now working at C. Kallendars.

Mrs. R. Vance came home from Fargo Tuesday of last week.

Remember the doll social at the Freer school house Wednesday evening.

Hilmer Carlson helped Willie Curtis last week, filling barn with feed, etc.

Don Healey and John Fieber were in Hannaford between trains Saturday.

John Kerber has built a temporary house for winter and is now building a barn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp and Leona and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson called at Fred Mosher's Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Seigle left Monday for Valley City, where she will stay until Mr. Seigle is able to leave the hospital.

Audrey Mosher visited with Leona Trapp Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Maxwell Ladbury and Elihu Mosher returned from Barnesville, Minn., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manignouse and Mrs. Jacob Seigle called at John Fiebers Sunday.

Henry Curtis left Saturday evening for Valley City, where he will spend Sunday with Grandma Stewart, before leaving for the west, where he intends to spend the winter.

Miss Pearl Ladbury was taken to Fargo Hospital for an operation Friday evening. It being a very serious case, the operation was performed at once. Later reports inform her relatives and friends that she passed away Sunday afternoon. She leaves an aged father and one sister besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death.

We wish to express our gratitude toward our neighbors and friends for the kindness shown during our accident and bereavement this fall. We have about set up housekeeping again by the aid of our friends. Know that we keenly appreciate every kindness shown.

Mr and Mrs. Jacob Seigle