

The Karnak News

A few from here attended Ladies Aid at Oscar Mosher's last week.

O. C. Olson and John Fieber were in Cooperstown one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland and sister Miss Helland motored to Kathryn Saturday afternoon.

E. W. Trapp and Fred Peterson were in Cooperstown Sunday.

Karnak Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. O. C. Olson on Thursday of this week.

R. Kinn and family and Henry Curtis were in Vailey City Friday.

Willie Magnussen had quite a smashup Friday evening on his way to Cooperstown. The car turned turtle, and broke the top, windshield and one front wheel, also fracturing two ribs of Mr. and Mrs. Aadne Vigesaa's little boy who was with him coming back. The garage men are always glad to see Willie.

Mrs. Don Healey left Sunday evening for River Falls, Wis., where she will get her household goods ready for shipment after which she will visit a while with relatives and friends.

John Nolting will have an auction on Friday.

Jake Arnold is now drilling a well for M. Magnussen.

Will Kerber and wife visited at John Kerber's last week.

The cement house for the Crane-Johnson yard is now completed.

Martin Nelson and Joe Griesinger are repairing the roads of Karnak.

Miss Mabel Sebo, of Vailey City, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

E. H. Peterson and daughter Florence, were in Luverne one day last week.