Howard Curtis, who is attending school at Fargo, came up Saturday and remained until evening visiting with the home folks.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of John Kerber Tuesday. Although the weather was rather bad a large crowd attended.

Miss Wilson, the night operator at the Great Northern depot at Luverne, spent a few hours visiting friends in town last Saturday.

Miss Hannah Kinn of Fargo came up from that city last Friday and remained over Sunday visiting at the home of her brother Rainerd Kinn and family.

A large crowd from Karnak and vicinity went to Luverne last Friday night to take in the Masquerade dance which was given there that evening. The majority of the people went down on the train and returned the next day.

Another one of our young men to receive his card this week is Hilmer Carlson, Cashier of the State Bank. He is in class Y., No. 1. If Mr. Carlson will have to go its going to be another hard blow to Karnak, as he is one of our most progressive business men.

Those thinking of having a Sale this spring will do well by calling at the restaurant or see Mr. Carlson at the State Bank about bills, terms, etc. If you intend to have a Sale in March it would be well to call at the restaurant and make arrangements for bills. We will be glad to make out your lists and give you prices, and the best part of it is you can get them on very short notice. Don't forget this.

The next dance at the Hall will be Friday night March 1st. There will no doubt be a good crowd there as everybody that comes to town says they are coming. The music is going to be great. In fact, it will be hard to secure this same music again as this is the first time since the hall has been put up that the management has been able to secure them. It will be worth the money alone to hear them play. Don't forget the date and arrange to come real early. The dancing will commence not later than 9 o'clock.

Fox hunting has been a hobby among our sportsmen the past winter, and it has been a very paying proposition to several of our prominent farmers. Cal Ross was out with the hounds one morning not long ago and in less than two hours had gotten two big red foxes. These two will bring him about $25.00 apiece. Foxes have been quite plentiful this year and the people who were fortunate enough to own a hound or two have reaped a nice little sum of money.

Carl Johnson transacted business matters in Hannaford Wednesday.

Jake Kittelson and son, Ed, were attending to business matters at Hannaford Tuesday.

Jorgen Hilmer went to Coopers-town Wednesday, where he spent a couple of days looking after business matters.

Mrs. E. C. Vance returned Wednesday from Casselton where she spent a few days visiting with relatives and friends.

We understand that on the first Sunday in March there will be services in the Hall. You are cordially invited to attend.

Already a few of our young automobile enthusiasts have taken their cars out and have been rambling around Karnak. This certainly is rushing the season.

Mr. Haugen has been around taking up a collection from the people of Karnak and vicinity to send to our boys in the camps and in the trenches. This drive was started by the Lutheran church and is to help the boys in having good clean amusements. This is for a very good cause and when Mr. Haugen comes around, be sure to put your name down.

And still the list of subscribers is growing. This week we have added to our list E. W. Trapp, J. A. Clawson, J. J. Hogness, Fred Peterson, Earl Houghton, and H. O. Carlson, of Finley. These were gotten without much solicitation. We want this great family journal to go to every home in this section, and in case we should forget to ask you to subscribe just kindly remind us. The first of March we want to get the list up to at least a hundred if possible. Always read your home paper first and then the Nonpartisan Leader.

The Ladies Aid Society is preparing to put on a play sometime this spring and the proceeds will go to the Red Cross. The date set for the play has not yet been decided on but we will endeavor to give it as much publicity as possible as soon as the date has been set. Now this will be something you can't afford to miss as it's going to be well worth the money. Besides the play which will take up quite a long spell, there will also be songs by some of the women and a male quartette. Kindly keep this social affair in your head and when the time comes for the play be sure to attend.

One thing that our progressive business men and farmers are going after next is a consolidated school. It is getting so now that the country is swarmed with consolidated schools, and wherever there is one located, the people are well satisfied. The way things stand now, the children of Karnak and vicinity have to go either two miles north or the same distance south. By having a consolidated school the board can arrange to send busses after the children and after school take them home. Some say taxes will be high. They won't be as high as one would think and even so, we would all be glad to pay a little more if we could put the children into a good school building. Kindly think the matter of consolidation over and at a little later date we will get together and get the thing going in full blast.

Do you know Mr. Brown of Coopers-town? Well, he's one we have succeeded in getting to help furnish music for the next dance. Mr. Brown is considered to be the best trap drummer in this section of the state. He carries a complete outfit with him, from a base drum down to a frying pan or cream ladle. To hear him play will be worth the price of a ticket. Besides Mr. Brown we have secured a piano player from Binford. She is a graduate from the conservatory of music of Boston, we understand, (maybe we're lying) but nevertheless she will play all the very latest music published. Besides this there will be singing mingled with the music. The management has gone to a great deal of expense in securing music for the next dance but they are going to have a class of music this time you will never forget. Don't miss this dance or you will always regret it.
