

The Karnak News

Miss Lucile Houghton, who has been taking care of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houghton, returned to her home at Cooperstown Tuesday.

M. Magnussen transacted business in Hannaford Tuesday.

Peter Jensen, one of the Great Northern's most popular locomotive firemen, is laying off a few days and visiting his many friends around Karnak.

Miss Ellen Johnson arrived from Moorhead Tuesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson.

Miss Mary Jensen and Miss Lelia Stewart went to Breckenridge Wednesday evening where Miss Jensen will have her eyes treated and will visit with her brothers Peter and Martin Jensen who are employed as locomotive firemen at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans J. Haugen went to Fargo Thursday evening where Mr. Haugen will undergo an operation.

Miss Pauline Loge, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Serina Loge for some time, returned to her home at Fargo Thursday evening.

The entire community is glad to see Ole Kravig up and around again after a hard spell of the flu.

S. E. Wickham, who is an old grain buyer, has been operating the St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator while Mr. Kravig was sick.

J. D. Feiber, our local blacksmith, is nursing a severe case of the flu.

W. D. Sinclair, of Hannaford, bought a car of stock in this community last week and shipped same to Hannaford Friday, and from there they were shipped to the Twin Cities Saturday.

There are all kinds of coal in Karnak this week; the Farmers Elevator Co. and St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator Co. both having received a car of hard coal, and the Farmers Elevator Co. also received a car of lignite from Noonan, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haugen were passengers on No. 200 for Fargo Friday evening.

Miss Clara Olgard is visiting her brother in Cooperstown this week.

M. Magnussen received a telegram from Washington, D. C. Friday stating that his son Alfred was wounded in action September 28th.

Selmer Larson, who is very sick with the flu, is reported some better.