

The Karnak News

Pay your 1917 taxes at the Karnak State Bank.

Joe Griesinger went to Fargo Monday on business.

Ed Zutter of Luverne was a caller in our town Thursday.

Myrt Curtis went to Hannaford last Saturday between trains.

Willie Curtis was a Hannaford visitor Thursday between trains.

Mrs. Vance went to Casselton last Friday and remained until Monday.

Harry Ladbury was a business caller in Hannaford Tuesday between trains.

Chris Holmes, the assistant roadmaster, was a business caller a short time Monday.

Howard Curtis left Tuesday evening for Fargo where he will again enter the school of engineering.

Another big snow storm hit us again Thursday. We are getting so we don't mind these any more.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kallender last Thursday. All concerned are doing nicely.

Andy Michaelson received a brand new phonograph by express Monday and is now enjoying himself immensely.

The ladies aid society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moshe, Friday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Harris returned Monday from Cooperstown where they visited for a short time with relatives and friends.

The farmers in this community are taking advantage of the splendid weather and roads and are hauling their grain to town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kinn and daughter returned Tuesday from Barnesville where they had spent a week visiting at the home of Mr. Kinn's parents.

Joe Griesinger's residence in the north part of town is now completed. The work of putting in the floor and other work on the interior being completed last week.

J. A. Clawson scrubbed the depot again Monday. He says that here after all men and women should be careful not to chew too much tobacco while waiting for their trains, as he doesn't want to scrub again until next Christmas.

Mrs. M. Ladbury and daughter Beatrice, and Miss Pearl Ladbury returned last Saturday from Valley City, where Beatrice had entered a hospital for treatment. Her condition is improved now and she is feeling as well as ever.

Next week there will perhaps not be any news in the Reporter section of the Enterprise. We may be able to put in a little, but chances are there won't be a great deal. We expect to go for a little vacation next week and probably won't be back in time to write up any.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wickland and Miss Kunze returned Wednesday from Hot Springs, Ark., where Mrs. Wickland and Miss Kunze were taking treatment. They are now both feeling fine and are in the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickland took a trip to Florida and on their return was accompanied by Miss Kunze.

Earl Houghton resigned his position at the J. J. Hogness store last week and will move to Sutton in a few days where he has accepted a position on a farm. Earl has been working in the store for a long time and he will be greatly missed by his many friends. Karnak will surely miss Mr. and Mrs. Houghton but the best wishes of the people of the town and community go with them to their new home.

A Box Social will be held at the Stromme Schoolhouse 3½ miles north west of Karnak on Friday evening, Feb. 22. A program will be given after which boxes will be auctioned.

Ladies should bring boxes filled with lunches for two and men should bring well filled purses. All are cordially