

J. A. Carlson spent Sunday at his home in Finley.

Mrs. Joe Griesinger was shopping in Cooperstown Friday.

The Red Cross did not meet Thursday owing to the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peterson, of Cooperstown, attended the dance in Karnak Friday evening.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blanchard Sunday.

Mrs. Don Healey returned to her home in Cooperstown Wednesday.

Karnak ought to have a good school. Now let's all stand up and be counted.

Gee, the farmers are smiling now since they had such a fine rain Saturday forenoon.

Albert Anderson was in Karnak Tuesday enroute to the coast. He is looking up a new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jackson, of Hannaford, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar Monday evening.

The Karnak Grain & Fuel Co. has received a car of soft coal. Better come early and avoid the rush.

S. C. Hafey and C. M. Johnston from Dazey are doing some repair work at the Farmers Elevator this week.

Maxwell Ladbury, wife and daughter Miss Beatrice have returned from their trip to Wolf Point, Mont.

A Harvest Festival will be given in Karnak Hall Tuesday evening by the Ladies of the Red Cross. Supper will be served from 6 p. m. till 9 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Everything in Karnak is being painted. The Great Northern painters are painting the depot; C. E. Kallendar is having his residence painted on the inside, and J. J. Hogness is also having the store painted.

The Karnak State Bank has received from the Bank Board its Certificate of Admittance under the State Guaranty Law, and all deposits are now protected by the State of North Dakota. You can't lose.

While visiting at the State Fair recently, our tonsorial artist, S. P. Clark, became very much interested in auto-polo, in fact, his enthusiasm got the better of his judgment and he proceeded to give a demonstration of how the game should be played, on our streets one evening.