

Geo. Kerber transacted business in Fargo Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Hogness went to Fargo Thursday to see a dentist.

Call Ross is visiting his brother, Chas. Ross, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar visited in Hannaford Wednesday evening.

The Norwegian Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Bennie Haugen on Wednesday.

J. J. Hogness is going to have his store re-painted. J. A. Clawson is to do the work.

Master Wayne and Miss Lyndell Clawson were shopping in Coopers-town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar entertained a crowd of twenty relatives from Marion last Sunday.

Miss Jennie Vigesaa, who graduated from a college in Fargo this spring, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Harris are the proud and happy parents of a fine baby girl. Nurse reports mother and babe doing nicely.

Clarence Michaelson, who has been working all spring for Selmer Larson, returned to his home at Lake Park, Minn., Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp and daughter Leona, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson, visited the movies in Hannaford Saturday evening.

Wm. Magnussen has purchased a new motor cycle. It has a real pretty whistle on it and Willie enjoys playing with it to the great annoyance of his neighbors. Quit it, Willie.

Mrs. Ed Fenton and daughter Margaret and Mrs. Peterson and daughter Florence went to Valley City Thursday. Miss Margaret is having some dental work done, and Miss Florence called to see a doctor.

Joe Griesinger moved his residence to the new foundation on the east side of town. He has a good cellar and expects to build an addition to the house in the near future. He will have a real cosy and convenient home when completed.

A large crowd attended the dance given by Harry Ladbury on his place last Friday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross. It was a beautiful evening, and the German band furnished some good music. It was a success and enjoyed by all.

We have ships.

We have men.

We have money, too.

We'll knock hell out of Kaiser Bill Without much more to do.

—Velbert McKelvey, age 9,
Memphis, Tenn.