

Chas. Ross is still on the sick-list.

Joe Banna was in town Monday.

Mrs. Earl Houghton went to Sutton Monday.

E. W. Trapp and family went to Hannaford Sunday.

Miss Andina Kalland was shopping in Cooperstown Monday.

Miss Clara J. Olson, of Fargo, is visiting Miss Ellen Forsberg.

The Farmers Elevator Co. is having its new residence painted.

Hilmer Carlson visited his relatives in Finley Wednesday evening.

Miss Laura Fadness spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wickham.

We are sorry to hear that Edgar Curis is suffering with rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar took in the movies at Hannaford Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pitney spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blanchard.

Mrs. H. G. Olson went to Casselton Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ralph Vance.

C. E. Kallander and family went to the movies in Cooperstown Wednesday evening.

Earl Houghton returned from Sutton Saturday. He will remain in Karnak for the present.

The Farmers Elevator company has shipped two cars of grain to the Twin Cities the past week.

Don't forget the big auction sale for the benefit of the Red Cross on Tuesday, May 21. We expect a big crowd.

A dance will be given in Karnak Hall, Friday evening, May 24. Good music and good time guaranteed. Be sure and come.

Spuds are about all planted, and it looks like there has been enough planted in North Dakota for the whole United States.

The Red Cross met with Mrs. John Feiber Thursday afternoon, and planned to serve lunch for the big auction sale Tuesday.

Mrs. Andrew Thompson took her little son, Victor, to Cooperstown Saturday to see a doctor. The little fellow is suffering from rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson are the proud and happy parents of a fine baby girl. She arrived Thursday morning. The doctor reports both mother and baby doing nicely.