

Mrs. N. A. Skjeret went to Fargo Wednesday.

J. D. Peterson went to Coopers-town Monday.

Hans Loge was a business caller in Fargo Saturday.

Mrs. H. C. Johnson returned from Moorhead Saturday.

Miss Ophia Coen went to Bedford Monday to visit relatives.

Joe Griesinger transacted business in Luverne Saturday.

Edgar Curtis and Ernest Ladbury went to Fargo Saturday.

Arfion Kindson made a business trip to Fargo Thursday.

Mrs. Hannah, and Miss Clara Kinn went to Hannaford Monday.

O. H. Carlson and M. J. Grundseth of Finley, were business callers in town Tuesday.

N. O. Skjeret and daughter, Mrs. Gunder Torguson, were passengers to Fargo Thursday.

Gladys Mosher and Clara Kinn returned to Fargo Monday after a brief visit with relatives.

Gladys Mosher returned from Fargo to visit her parents. She is attending school there.

Howard Rising made a business trip to Hankinson, N. D., Saturday and returned Tuesday.

Don Healy spent Saturday evening and Sunday with his wife and her sister, Mrs. Fred Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wickham are expecting their son, Private M. E. Wickham home on a furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar drove to Hannaford Thursday evening to have their infant son christened.

We had a fine rain Saturday and Sunday that was good for the crops and put a happy smile on evry farmers' lips.

Mrs. P. Veglen, of Minneapolis, arrived in Karnak Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson.

Mrs. R. A. Aspland and children, of Cooperstown, left for Fergus Falls, Minn., where they expect to make their future home.

Mrs. O. C. Olson and children arrived in Karnak Wednesday to take possession of their new home. Karnak extends a hearty welcome.

The ladies of Karnak are talking of organizing a Red Cross Society. Every one should be interested in this work and we hope they make a success of it.

Karnak is getting to be a strictly modern town. Wednesday night thieves broke locks off of all three of the elevators and stole all of the gasoline at each place and made good their escape.

A play entitled, Tony, The Convict, was given in Karnak Hall last Friday evening by the pupils of the Ladbury High School and their teacher, Miss Gunda Gundason for the benefit of the Red Cross. They had been practicing for some time and each knew their part perfectly. It was certainly a success.