

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross were called to Cooperstown Saturday to nurse their daughter Mrs. J.D. Peterson, through a spell of Spanish Flu. Mrs. Ross returned Thursday and we are glad to hear Mrs. Peterson is convalescing.

Mr. C. E. Kallandar spent Sunday in his old home at Barlow, N. D.

Mrs. J. J. Hogness and daughter, Helen, went to Fargo Friday-afternoon.

Ernest Pitney was a business caller in Luverne Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Kallandar spent Sunday in Luverne.

We are sorry to hear that Wm. Magnussen was taken home sick Friday.

Dave Freeman has accepted a position as boiler fireman at $140 per month at New Rockford. He will move his family there in the near future.

Mrs. A. Magnusson was shopping in Hannaford Wednesday.

J. A. Carlson spent Sunday with his family in Finley.

Howard Rising is painting Mrs. Eva Curtis' house.

Joe Griesinger was a business caller in Luverne Thursday.

We are glad to see most of our sick friends well and out again. So far, we are thankful to say, the Spanish Flu has been kind to this neighborhood.

C. E. Kallander was a business caller in Cooperstown Wednesday evening.