

James Brainard has purchased the Fenton farm and will move there in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peterson, of Cooperstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross.

H. E. Jackson left Monday for New Rockford where he has accepted a position with the Great Northern R. Y. Co.

Miss Anna Kerber arrived Monday from Fargo for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Kerber, east of town.

Don't forget the big dance at the Karnak Hall next Friday night, Sept. 27. Good music and a good time guaranteed.

Ernest Pitney left Tuesday night for Park Rapids, Minn., to attend the funeral of his brother who died suddenly at that point.

S. P. Clark went to St. Paul Thursday evening to consult a specialist. He has been suffering with stomach trouble for some time.

Mrs. S. E. Wickham requests that the ladies of the Karnak Red Cross meet at her home on the afternoon of Sept. 25th, and bring their knitting.

We are sorry to learn that Bert Law has decided to leave this neighborhood, and will move in the near future to a farm south east of Luverne.

All of the young girls up to seventy and the boys up to eighty years inclusive can find employment picking potatoes next week. For particulars apply to E. W. Trapp.

Mrs. Ole Kravig and children arrived from Lidgerwood, N. D., Friday and will make their home here. Mr. Kravig is employed as manager for the St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator Co.