

A large amount of machinery and household goods will be sold on the old Sinclair farm four miles north of Hannaford next Monday. The owner M. B. Kjelgaard expects to leave for New York state March 1. and to take a carload of horses but nothing else with him. Much of his machinery is nearly new, hence this will be a good opportunity for farmers in need of additional equipment.