

Two Clerks Promoted By Mercantile Co.

A deal was recently made whereby O. C. Westley sold a portion of his stock in the Hannaford Mercantile Co. to J. B. Westley and Soren Krag, and they have been elected as members of the Board of Directors of the firm.

These two young men are well known to this community. With the exception of about two years in war service they have both been employed continuously at the store for the past seven or eight years.

Mr. O. C. Westley, who has been one of the active proprietors and manager of the buying department since 1911, will not take any active part in its management, though he retains the largest part of his stock and continues as an officer and director.

Mr. B. M. Lunde retains all of his stock and has been elected General Manager, and with the assistance of these two young men, aims to push ahead for more business.

The new stockholders in the firm have earned their promotion by hard work and faithful service and this is a splendid recognition of their efforts on the part of their employers.

We have not yet learned what plans Mr. O. C. Westley has for the future, but hope he will decide to continue in Hannaford.
