

Last Wednesday night about 11:30 lightning struck the house occupied by Magnus Magnussen near Karnak, badly wrecking the building and setting the chamber on fire. All of the family were asleep at the time, Mr. Magnussen was stunned but no one was seriously injured. Most of the household goods and clothing was destroyed. Mr. Magnussen's loss is fully covered by insurance written by Willim Angus.