

P. A. Melgard, the present deputy auditor, announces himself in this issue as a candidate for the office of County Auditor. Mr. Melgard is an old-timer in the county, is thoroughly familiar with the work required, and if nominated and elected will make an efficient official.