

H. H. Swingen and his brother Tom were called out to the western part of the state by the serious illness of their father. They left Sunday by auto.