

J. Earl Fladeland, of Portland, was in Hannaford Saturday giving exhibitions with his Curtis bi-plane, and taking tourists out into the kingdom of the eagle. From what we have learned Harry Cole was the only one Saturday to show enough spirit of adventure to take advantage of the opportunity of making a call on the winged inhabitants of the aerial regions and he says he enjoyed the fifteen minutes' trip immensely. Sunday afternoon Mr. Fladeland was at Cooperstown and we understand that Misses Edna Thoreson and Hazel Peterson enjoyed a trip in the air-ship that day.
